

Austrian Writers and Philosophers

Robarts Library, 1st floor, May 1-30, 2000

Parallel to the conference there will be an exhibition on Austrian writers and philosophers at the first floor of Robarts Library. For further information, please contact Wolfgang Huemer or Marc-Oliver Schuster.

The conference is organized by

WOLFGANG HUEMER
Department of Philosophy

215 Huron Street
Toronto, ON, M5S 1A1
whuemer@chass.utoronto.ca

MARC-OLIVER SCHUSTER
Department of Germanic
Languages and Literatures
50 St. Joseph Street
Toronto, ON, M5S 1J4
marc.schuster@utoronto.ca

Conference web-site: <http://www.chass.utoronto.ca/a-phil-lit/>

We would like to thank the following institutions for their generous support

Austrian Canadian Council
Austrian Embassy (Ottawa)
Austrian Trade Commission
Canadian Centre for Austrian and Central European Studies
(University of Alberta, Edmonton)
The Connaught Committee, University of Toronto
Department of Germanic Languages and Literatures
Department of Philosophy
Graduate Students' Union
Joint Initiative in German and European Studies
Provost Adel Sedra

Writing the Austrian Traditions

A Conference on the Relations between Austrian
Philosophy and Literature

May 12-14, 2000

University of Toronto
Woodsworth College
Room 126
119 St. George Street

Department of Philosophy
Department of Germanic Languages and Literatures

Program

Friday Afternoon, May 12, 2000

- 3.00 p.m. Introductory Address
- 3.30 p.m. RUDOLF HALLER (University of Graz)
Wittgenstein: Poetry and Literature
- 4.30 p.m. WENDELIN SCHMIDT-DENGLER
(University of Vienna)
Austria's Plato
- 5.30 p.m. Reception
- 7.00 p.m. FRANZ JOSEF CZERNIN
Reading from his work (German)

Saturday Morning, May 13, 2000

Coffee and Croissants

- 10:00 a.m. WOLFGANG HUEMER (University of Toronto)
Phenomenological Reduction and Aesthetic Experience: Husserl Meets Hofmannsthal
- 10:45 a.m. JOHN GIBSON (University of Toronto)
Wittgenstein and Literary Skepticism
- 11:30 a.m. Coffee Break
- 11:45 a.m. BARRY SMITH (SUNY at Buffalo)
Meinong and the Phantasy-Machine
- 12:45 p.m. Lunch Break

Saturday Afternoon, May 13, 2000

- 2:30 p.m. DALE JACQUETTE (Pennsylvania State University)
David Lewis on Meinongian Logic of Fiction
- 3:30 p.m. NEWTON GARVER (SUNY at Buffalo)
"Mir fällt zu Hitler nichts ein." — "Wovon man nicht sprechen kann, darüber muß man schweigen.": The 'Silence' of Kraus and Wittgenstein
- 4:30 p.m. Coffee Break
- 4:45 p.m. MARK E. BLUM (University of Louisville)
The 'Soft Law' of Austrian Historical Logic since the Enlightenment in the Arts and Sciences
- 5:45 p.m. MARK GRZESKOWIAK (University of Toronto)
A 'Symposium' as Architext? Hermann Broch's Schlafwandler Trilogie and Discourse of Art and Philosophy in the Modern Novel
- 8:30 p.m. Dinner

Sunday Morning, May 14, 2000

Coffee and Croissants

- 10:00 a.m. HEATHER JILL SCOTT (University of Chicago)
Oedipus Endangered: The Rise of Atrean Incest in Musil's Mann ohne Eigenschaften
- 10:45 a.m. RANDALL DIPERT (SUNY at Buffalo)
Mathematics in Musil
- 11:45 a.m. Coffee Break
- 12:00 p.m. FRED WILSON (University of Toronto)
The Vienna Circle and Freud